The Chocolate Party Company

Calling all young chocolate lovers. Are you looking for a special theme for a party? Then come to us! Our chocolate parties combine the very best quality Belgian chocolate with fun-packed activities. Our experienced chocolatiers love to share their magic chocolate-making skills and make sure everyone has a great time. Spend two unforgettable hours creating scrumptious chocolate masterpieces, such as cute chocolate animals, crispy coconut cups or, best of all, toppings are available, including caramel sprinkles, chocolate-coated honeycomb crumbs and- our favourite- very berry strawberry curls.

Perfect for any special occasion, our fantastic fun parties will help you to create chocolate delights that will impress everyone. The time will just fly. But the fun doesn't stop there because, at the end, you and your friends will take away party bags crammed with your own, delicious, handmade treats. You will also take with you a wealth of knowledge about the secret art of the chocolatiers, making this a day you'll never forget.

Parties last for two hours, are suitable for children from 8-14 years old and are available seven days a week. We run throughout the day, starting at 10 am, with the last party finishing at 9 pm on weekdays and 10 pm on weekends and during holidays. See our website for prices, availability, and more details.

Writing:

Q7. Write an essay describing your greatest fear.

[20]

You should focus on:

- details of your fear
- why does it make you afraid?
- how do you plan to overcome it?

Your school is very popular and the number of students is increasing. This means that it is more difficult to buy snacks at break time. Write a letter to your Principal to make break time easier for everyone. Write a letter giving suggestions about how to do this.

Q8. Write your letter. You must include the following:

[18]

- some of the difficulties that you and other students have at break time
- suggestions about how the school can make break time easier
- how the students and the school will benefit.

Cover all three points above in detail. You should make your letter polite and informative. Start your letter 'To the Principal'. Remember to give your name and a date.
